

Photoshopped images used for illustrative purposes.

CourtCall video used for civil trial involving multiple witness testimony from around the world.

Challenge

A civil trial in Toronto commencing in ten days, requiring testimony from eleven witnesses across Canada, United States, Europe, Russia, and parts of Asia. Travel, accommodations and legal expenses would have cost litigants upwards of $78,317.00 CAN ($60,000 US).

Solution

CourtCall's video platform was the ideal solution for the eleven days of testimony. Large screens in the courtroom allowed the judge to see participants online in their homes and offices. Witnesses were able to provide testimony without traveling to court.

Results

By allowing remote testimony, litigants in the case were billed a total of $1,850.24 CAN ($1,417.50 US), spared the flight and hotel expenses that would have been required to bring each witness to court individually.

Highlights

- 98% savings using remote testimony
- International roster of witnesses summoned to hearing on short notice
- Using CourtCall roughly the cost of one night's hotel stay for eleven witnesses